RULES OF ORDER

OF THE

NORTH INDIANA CONFERENCE.

Rule 1. The Conference shall meet at 8:30 A. M., spend a half hour in devotional exercises, to be conducted by a member of the Conference appointed by the Bishop, proceed with the business at 9 A. M., and adjourn at 12 M. But the Conference may, in its discretion, alter the time of meeting and adjournment.

Rule 2. The President shall decide all questions of order, subject to an appeal to the Conference; but in case of such appeal the question shall be taken without debate, except that the appellant may make a simple statement of the grounds of his appeal.

Rule 3. All resolutions and motions shall be in writing, if the President, Secretary, or any two members request it.

Rule 4. When a motion is made and seconded, or a resolution introduced and seconded, or a report presented and read by the Secretary, or stated by the President, it shall be deemed in possession of the Conference; but any motion or resolution may be withdrawn by the mover, with the consent of the Conference, at any time before amendment or decision.

Rule 5. The motions to Lay on the Table, to Take from the Table, and for the Previous Question, shall be taken without debate.

Rule 6. No new motion or resolution shall be entertained until the one under consideration has been disposed of, which may be done by adoption or rejection, unless one of the following motions should intervene, which shall have precedence in the order in which they are placed, namely:

(1.) To fix the time to which the Conference shall adjourn.
(2.) To adjourn.
(3.) To take a recess.
(4.) To lay on the table.
(5.) For the previous question.
(6.) To postpone to a given time.
(7.) To refer.
(8.) To substitute.
(9.) To amend.
(10.) To postpone indefinitely.

A motion to amend an amendment shall be in order, and a substitute for both amendments may be received, which substitute may be amended, and if a substitute be accepted, it shall operate as an amendment to the original proposition.

RULE 7. When any member is about to speak in debate, or to deliver any matter to the Conference, he shall rise and respectfully address the President, but shall not proceed until recognized by him.

RULE 8. No member shall be interrupted while speaking, except by the President to call him to order when he departs from the question, or uses personalities or disrespectful language; but any member may call the attention of the President to the subject when he deems a speaker out of order, and any member may explain when he thinks himself misrepresented.

RULE 9. When a member desires to speak to a question of privilege, he shall briefly state the question; but it shall not be in order for him to proceed until the President shall have decided it a question of privilege.

RULE 10. No person shall speak more than twice on the same question, nor more than ten minutes at one time, without leave of the Conference; nor shall any person speak more than once until every member choosing to speak shall have spoken.

RULE 11. When any motion or resolution shall have been acted upon by the Conference, it shall be in order for any member who voted with the prevailing side to move a reconsideration; but a motion to reconsider a non-debatable motion shall be decided without debate.

RULE 12. No member shall absent himself from the service of the Conference without leave, unless he is sick or unable to attend.

RULE 13. No member shall be allowed to vote on any question who is not within the bar at the time when such question shall be put by the President, except by leave of the Conference when such member has been necessarily absent.

RULE 14. Every member who is within the bar at the time a question is put shall give his vote, unless the Conference, for special reasons, shall excuse him.

RULE 15. It shall be in order to move that the question be taken without further debate on any measure pending, except in cases in which character is involved, and if sustained by a vote of two-thirds, the question shall be taken.

RULE 16. The motion to adjourn shall be taken without debate, and shall always be in order, except, (1) when a member has the floor; (2) when a question is actually put, or a vote is being taken; (3) when the question is pending on seconding the demand for the previous question; (4) when the previous question has been called and sustained, and is still pending; and (5) when a motion to adjourn has been negatived and no business or debate has intervened.

RULE 17. These rules shall not be suspended except by a vote of two-thirds of the members present and voting.

JOURNAL.

FIRST DAY.

HUNTINGTON, IND., Wednesday, April 1, 1891.

The Forty-eighth Session of the North Indiana Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church began in the Methodist Episcopal Church, in the city of Huntington, Ind., at 8:30 o'clock A. M., Wednesday, April 1, 1891, at which time Bishop I. W. Joyce took the chair and called the Conference to order. He read portions of the fortieth chapter of the Prophecy of Isaiah, and of the eleventh chapter of Second Corinthians, beginning with the twenty-second verse. The 533d hymn of the Hymnal was sung,

"Forever here my rest shall be,"

after which J. W. Lowry offered prayer.

Sacrament of the Lord's Supper.—Previous to the administration of the Lord's Supper, the Bishop read certain verses from the fifty-third chapter of Isaiah, and from the twenty-sixth chapter of Matthew's Gospel, after which hymn 214 was sung,

"Alas! and did my Savior bleed."

The Bishop then proceeded to consecrate the sacrament of the Lord's Supper, and administered the same with the assistance of the Presiding Elders.

Telegram.—At the conclusion of the sacrament, the Chair read a telegram from W. S. Birch, announcing the critical illness of Sister Birch, and requesting the prayers of the Conference, and offered prayer.

REPORTS.

ON EDUCATION.

We present the report of the Board of Visitors to DePauw University as a part of our report, as follows:

DePauw University.

To the North Indiana Annual Conference:

Dear Fathers and Brethren —We, your visitors, have the pleasure of repeating the words of our report last year, that this year has been, thus far, the most properous in the history of the University. We are greatly pleased with all the prospects of the institution, and we find the outlook to be most encouraging in every respect.

Although one of the schools of the University was abolished at the last commencement, which would naturally cause a less enrollment, yet up to this time the number in attendance has been as great, if not greater, than last year, and the amount of incidental fees received from the students, which is the true test, has been greater. This year there will be a thousand different students enrolled, if not more. So great is the attendance that it has been found necessary to separate the preparatory school from the rest of the students at the time of prayers at the noon hour.

The efficient presidency of Dr. John continues to evoke the same enthusiasm among professors and students which we marked last year. Everywhere we found manifestations of a spirit of earnest work and faithful study, together with a development of that manly and womanly feeling which is the result of placing the students upon their honor, treating them as men and women, and which causes them to realize the great object of their membership in the University. We wish to express our hearty approval of the government of the various faculties under the theory of the President. We found the same gentlemanly deportment everywhere. A deep and earnest religious spirit pervades the Institution.

The University is entirely free from all those disgraceful contentions of classes and societies that so often disfigure our great colleges and universities.

At the meeting in June it seemed best to the Joint Board to abolish the Normal School, which was accordingly done, not that the Board was dissatisfied with the Faculty of the school, or with the school itself, in which excellent work was being done, but because we deemed that the theory of a normal school was contrary to the theory of a University, and because, also, we desired to use the money spent upon that school in the department of the College of Liberal Arts.

The Asbury College of Liberal Arts is very prosperous. It ranks with any college in the land. It was with deep regret that we accepted the resignation of Prof. Carhart, of the Chair of Rhetoric and English Literature, who was elected to the presidency of the State Normal School of Minnesota. Prof. Carhart had done much for the reputation of DePauw, and more especially by the triumph of his students in the State and Interstate Oratorical Contests. We regard his departure as a great loss. We considered ourselves very fortunate in securing the services of Prof. Bronson, of Cornell University, who has with great acceptability filled this chair during the year, and whom we hope we shall be able to retain.

Prof. Neff, Associate Professor of Modern Languages, was elected to a position in Iowa City, Iowa. In his place we secured Prof. Manning, who has created great enthusiasm in the study of German, so much so that it has been found necessary to employ an assistant teacher in that language.

We have not as yet seen our way clear to fill the Chair of Mathematics, from which Dr. John was elected to the presidency.

Prof. Langdon, Associate Professor of Latin, has returned from Europe, and resumed his labors, to the great pleasure of all.

We gave Prof. DeMotte, of the Chair of Physics, leave of absence for the entire year, that he might visit Europe to purchase apparatus, and fulfill other engagements.

The other Professors remain the same as at the time of our last report and are all at their posts. An assistant was elected to aid Prof. Jenkins in the Department of Biology. We have never seen the laboratory of the Department so crowded as it is this year.

Dr. Jenkins, in his tour of the Sandwich Islands a year ago, discovered a large number of new species of fishes. The Smithsonian Institute is to publish and illustrate the work done by him three years ago in the Gulf of Mexico.

A new chemical laboratory is greatly needed at the present, and we suggest to our men of means that they could do no better work than to erect such a laboratory.

We noticed great enthusiasm in the Department of History, under the charge of Prof. Weaver. A moot government has been organized, for the study of our national government, our constitution, and our legislative methods of procedure. A general election has been held in the University, a senate and a house of representatives chosen; Prof. Weaver has been elected president, has been sworn in, and has delivered an inaugural address.

The new course of study, which was proposed, was formally adopted by the Board. It is proving to be a great success. And the new plan of two semesters in the school year meets general approbation.

We hope you as a Conference will urge all young men of your acquaintance who are going to college to enter at DePauw.

In the School of Theology the Board directed that its commencement should be held at the time of the general commencement of the University. We elected Prof. Beals to a permanent professorship, and we have heard the most excellent reports concerning him and his work. Dean Gobin entered upon his duties with the beginning of the year. The whole school has responded to his touch. The attendance has increased. A site has been selected for a new dormitory, which is being erected by the munificence of Mrs. W. C. DePauw and her daughter. A new feature this year was a course of lectures to the school by Dr. Buckley, editor of the Christian Advocate. He delivered a series of five lectures in February, which were attended by at least a hundred ministers from abroad, and which were heard with great interest and profit by the whole University. Dr. Mendenhall, editor of the Methodist Review, delivered another course. We trust that this will be a permanent feature of this school. Large additions have been made to the library of the school, and it is excellently arranged.

The other professors in the school are doing faithful and excellent work.

Again we take great pleasure in commending this School of Theology to all young men who intend to enter the ministry. We trust the members of this Conference will remember this school, and we especially suggest that efforts be made to secure more of the graduates of this school as members of our Conference.

In the School of Law we also directed that the school year should equal the University year, and that its commencement should be held with that of the University.

Dean Downey presented his resignation in August, which was received with deep regret, he having been connected with the University for many years as trustee and as Dean of the School of Law. We elected as Dean, Prof. Mason, of Indianapolis, a young attorney of large practice and fine reputation, who entered upon his duties at the beginning of the year. The school has doubled in number, the attendance being nearly fifty, and the Dean has inspired great enthusiasm. At our last visit, in February, we especially noted the diligence of the law students. We found the law library filled, and learned that different sets of students filled it every hour of the day. They were all hard at work consulting the reports and taking notes. New and valuable sets of reports have been added to the library. We commend this school as without a superior, to all young men who intend to study law.

In the Preparatory School but few changes have been made, and those among the minor instructors. Prof. Bassett and the faithful men who have been with him for years, are doing excellent work in training up new generations of students for the University.

Lieut. Williams is still detailed from the army for the charge of the Military School. We consider the work of the school of great value in fostering the military feeling, as well as patriotism, among our young men.

In the School of Music, twenty-four additional music rooms have been constructed for practice, and new pianos placed therein. Miss Kelly has returned from Germany, and resumed her labors. Dean Howe still continues the public recitals and concerts, and is giving the school an excellent reputation in all respects, and especially by his success as a composer. Fine opportunities are given here for orchestral study, and there are efficient instructors on all the musical instruments.

The Art School has at its head Dean Mills, an excellent artist. Some most beautiful specimens of wood carving were exhibited to us. Painting on china has been added to the work of the school.

It is the feeling of your visitors that in all the arrangements of the Joint Board during the past year, we have made excellent selections. Without any disparagement of the grand work of the men of the past, we think the Board is building upon their broad foundations and carrying out to the full all their plans, and constantly adding and improving upon them. We consider DePauw University an institution of which the Methodist Episcopal Church may well be proud, and one that should receive the heartiest support. The finances of the University are in a more favorable condition each year. Yet, for the present there is great need of a larger income. Pray that the Lord may impress the Methodist men of means to be liberal, and to remember DePauw in their gifts and bequests. There is no better way of achieving posthumous usefulness, or doing that which shall continue after us and work for us through the ages, than by adding to the endowment of DePauw.

We recommend that Judge R. Wes. McBride be elected Trustee to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Judge Mitchell, and, also, for the ensuing three years; and that C. G. Hudson and J. K. Waltz be elected Visitors to DePauw University, and J. E. Ervin and C. U. Wade, Visitors to the DePauw School of Theology; and that $1,000 be apportioned among the districts for the DePauw School of Theology.

GARRETT BIBLICAL INSTITUTE.

We rejoice in the growing prosperity of the Garrett Biblical Institute, and do most heartily recommend it to all our young men seeking a higher qualification for their faithful calling. H. B. Ridgway, D. D., and his Faculty maintain, to the highest degree, their reputation for thoroughness and discipline in their work. As efficient Christian gentlemen in the various departments of the Institution, they are fully abreast the age, and are answering the demand of the Church for an educated ministry. We recommend that A. W. Lamport and W. D. Parr be elected Visitors to Garrett Biblical Institute.

BOSTON SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY.

Having received a communication from the Boston School of Theology, one of the institutions which "exist for the benefit of the whole Church," and recognizing the advantages here afforded young men seeking to prepare themselves for the work of the ministry, we take pleasure in recommending it as one of the old and time-honored institutions of our beloved Methodism.

CHILDREN'S DAY.

WHEREAS, We recognize the important work that the Board of Education is doing in behalf of worthy young men who are equipping themselves for the Ministry. We recommend:

1. That Children's Day be observed, and a collection be taken up in all our Sunday-schools, and that this collection be held sacredly as the offering of the children, not to be appropriated, under any circumstances, into any other channel than that for which it was orignally intended.

2. All collections for the Sunday-school Fund taken on Childrens' Day, should go to the Treasurer of the Board of Education, and if the General Educational Collection be taken on the same Sunday, that is, on Children's Day, the combined collections should be equally divided between the Sunday-school Fund and the General Fund.

FORT WAYNE COLLEGE.

The Trustees of Fort Wayne College report that, under the instructions given them by the last Conference, they received a proposition from Taylor University to take the College property, assume the mortgage indebtedness, and pay or satisfy all the unsecured debts of the College. The Trustees, after a conference with the Commission appointed at the last Conference, accepted said proposition, and the transaction was completed, the sale effected and transfer of property made, and the Conference forever released from any obligation as to the indebtednes of Fort Wayne College.

COMMISSION ON FORT WAYNE COLLEGE.

The Commission on Fort Wayne College, appointed at the last session of Conference, beg leave to submit the following as their report:

The Commission was organized by the election of W. S. Birch, President; C. W. Lynch, Vice-President; C. E. Bacon, Treasurer, and H. N. Herrick, Secretary.

On the 29th of last May, the Commission was called to Fort Wayne, Ind., to consider, as an Advisory Board, a series of propositions made by the Trustees of Taylor University to the Trustees of Fort Wayne College. After hearing these propositions the Commission formally consented to the transfer of the college property to the Taylor University, according to the terms indicated in said propositions.

As early in the Conference year as seemed expedient the Commission formulated an invitation for overtures for establishing a Conference Institution of learning according to the directions given at the last Conference session. Responses to these overtures were received in due time, and propositions were made to the Board, which are still pending. The Commission is not yet able to report definitely the result of these propositions, but assures the Conference that the directions given in the last Minutes will be rigidly adhered to.

The Board has elected W. D. Parr, Treasurer, to fill the vacancy caused by the transfer of C E Bacon, and asks that F. T. Simpson be elected a member of the Commission in place of Brother Bacon.

SABBATH OBSERVANCE.

We, your committee appointed on Sabbath Observance, do hereby make the following report:

WHEREAS, There appears to be a growing tendency to make the Sabbath a day of worldly pleasure and enjoyment, and to hold the commandments of God in defiance, as of no value to society; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we are unalterbly opposed to the opening of the gates and halls at the World's Fair in Chicago, in 1893, on the Sabbath Day; and to the taking of fees at the gates of camp meetings on the Sabbath.

Resolved, That we view with great sadness and with decided protest, the tendencies of these times to look favorably upon games of base ball played on the Sabbath, and we urge our Methodist people to abstain from all participation in this great evil.

POST-GRADUATE COURSE OF STUDY.

The Committee appointed at the last session of the Conference on a Post-Graduate Course of Study for the Itinerants' Club, would report that in view of the nearness of the General Conference, and the fair probability that some action will be taken by that body on this same subject, it is not thought advisable at this time to formulate such a course of study. It is the judgment of the committee, however, that such a course of study should be arranged for all who desire to avail themselves of its benefits.

Heretofore the Educational and Children's Day Funds have been reported as one item; this year they are separate, hence the apparent decrease in the educational column. Also, the difference of $145 between the statistical table and the Treasurer's report for Missions in Fort Wayne District for the year 1890 is because that sum came to me from a private source.

MEMOIRS.

THE REV. ABIJAH MARINE, D. D.

The Rev. Abijah Marine, D. D., was born in Wayne county, Ind., November 26, 1832, and died in Lincoln, Nebraska, July 12, 1890, at the age of 57 years, 7 months and 6 days.

His parents, who are still living, were farming people, and upon their farm the subject of this memoir was brought up. These parents are both members of the Methodist Episcopal Church. They were people of even, gentle temperament, of great worth and of genuine piety. The surroundings of the neighborhood were of a high character, and the whole community was shaped by the influence of numerous members of the Society of Friends.

Dr. Marine's early schooling was received in a Friends' school in the immediate neighborhood. Subsequently he entered the Whitewater College, at Centerville, where he finished the work of Junior year, when the Institution was suspended for lack of funds. But his education did not cease with this, for he was ever a student, and continued to pursue severe, critical study as long as he lived, building fair and high on the foundation of school days.

He received in his youth an excellent religious training, not only from his parents, but also from a pious and talented grandmother, who had been a preacher of the Society of Friends. He was received into the Methodist Episcopal Church by the Rev. John H. Hull, in 1853. He was powerfully converted at a meeting held by the Rev. J. C. Robbins, at Hopewell, on the Whitewater Circuit. He shouted, praised God aloud, testified eloquently, and his conversion was regarded as the most marked and clear of three hundred during that year.

This was no evanescent emotion, no mere excitement, for Dr. Marine at once began to be active in all forms of religious work. In 1854 he was employed as a colporteur by the Tract Society of our Church. In the pursuit of this work he arrived at the Lima Circuit, then under the charge of Dr. Birch. Here the pastor promised to recommend him to the appointments of the circuit if he would preach the next Sunday morning. In spite of pleading of inexperience, timidity, and youthfulness, he was induced to attempt to preach. His embarrassment was patent to all, and those who heard him doubted his qualifications and call to preach. But in the afternoon of that same day, he followed the sermon of the pastor with such liberty and power in exhortation, that all who heard were convinced that he was truly called to preach the gospel.

In September, 1855, at our session in Goshen, he was admitted on trial in the North Indiana Annual Conference, and appointed to the LaGrange Circuit. At that time he was bashful, reserved, and at first sight gave little idea of the power latent within him, and which was to be so remarkably developed.

His appointments in this Conference were LaGrange Circuit, Elkhart and Bristol, Cambridge City, Knightstown, Muncie, Anderson, Union Chapel in Richmond, Warsaw, Berry Street in Fort Wayne, Wayne Street in Fort Wayne, Grace Church in Richmond, and Presiding Elder of the Fort Wayne District for eighteen months. This closed twenty-four years of service among us. He was then transferred to the Northwest Indiana Conference, and stationed at College Avenue Church, Greencastle. Then he was transferred to the Southeast Indiana Conference, and stationed at Central Avenue Church, Indianapolis. From there he was again transferred to the Northwest Indiana Conference, and stationed at Trinity Church, Lafayette. In 1887 he was transferred to the Nebraska Conference, and stationed at St. Paul Church, Lincoln. Here he finished an active ministry of thirty-three years.

Early in his ministerial life Dr. Marine began to show rapid development as a preacher. In statement he was unusually clear, and he was always very powerful in his exhortations. He spent much time in his study, and carefully prepared his themes, which were of a striking nature. He had vivid power of illustration, and at once, made his impress upon his congregation, and held them enchained to the end. He ever had crowded houses. Seldom did he fail. He continued to develop as long as he stood in the pulpit. His course did not reach a climax, and then decline, but was ever upward while he lived.

He was truly eloquent. He became a popular preacher, not in poorer acceptation of the term, but as a sound, orthodox, useful preacher of the gospel, his services were in great demand for especial occasions. He acquitted himself with great honor on the platform in discussions of the great problems of Church and State.

He carefully wrote his sermons, and often read them. He wrote carefully, and with a definite plan. But in every sermon there was an unwritten portion, in which, under the inspiration of the hour, he was accustomed to rise at the greatest heights, and display a majestic eloquence. Often he would manifest a subtle humor, and an aptness of expression that would most exactly fit the case. He could carefully draw the line between humor and irreverence. He was pre-eminently a preacher, and as a preacher he excelled.

Dr. Marine was twice married. His first marriage was to Miss Mary Miller, who died during his pastorate at Anderson, leaving one daughter, who survives her father. He was married the second time to Miss Clara Smith, who, with her son Clarence, is left.

During his first year at Lincoln it became evident that he was far from well. Symptoms of nervous prostration became threatening, and a long and serious illness resulted. Recovering, he resumed work, and was again appointed to Lincoln. In a short time the nervous prostration became so pronounced that he was obliged to retire from his charge. Tender ministrations were of no avail. His memory of recent events was impaired, while he vividly recalled his Indiana pastorates and his former friends. He received every care, gradually grew weaker, and suddenly passed to the more excellent glory on Saturday, July 12.

His funeral was held in Lincoln, by Dr. Buchtel, and he was buried in that city.

As a man, Dr. Marine was of a most cordial nature. He made friends everywhere. He was beloved and honored by all his brethren in the ministry, and most especially by the younger men. He was twice elected to the General Conference, the first time at Richmond, in 1876, and he led our delegation in the General Conference of 1880. From DePauw University he received the honorary degrees of A. M. and D. D.

As a Presiding Elder he was exceedingly popular. To his preachers he showed himself as truly sympathetic, faithful, kind, considerate of the interests of those under his charge. He did everything in his power both for ministers and charges. Every one who has ever been favored with the friendship of Dr. Marine counts himself rich in having possessed such a true friend, and cherishes its memory with delight.

He was free from all self-seeking. He rose by the force of his own natural powers, by the gifts which he assiduously cultivated, and by faithful devotion to his work. In his charges he was remembered and cherished. His people found him a delightful conversationalist, and an aimable companion. The courage and strength of his convictions gave him an optimistic view of life. He thoroughly believed that he was on the right side, and no withering doubts shriveled his powers, or made him hesitate in forming and leading public opinion.

In his family he was especially loving and tender. He loved his home, and loved to be in his home. To him wife and children were especially precious, and the objects of his tenderest devotion.

A pure man, a faithful minister, an able preacher of the Lord Jesus Christ has been lost to the church militant, but gained by the church triumphant. God give the Church and the Conference more men like Abijah Marine.

THE REV. Y. B. MEREDITH, A. M.

Yancy B. Meredith was born near Mooresville, Morgan County, Indiana, October 11, 1832. He was the son of Nathan and Jane Meredith. His father was a teacher, and both his parents were prominent and devout members of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

Brother Meredith's youth was passed in Mooresville and vicinity until he was some eighteen years of age. His father taught him privately and did not send him to school. He learned the business of a carpenter, and also painting. At this age he removed to the State of Iowa, where he entered a seminary. For three years he went to school and worked alternately at his trade of a carpenter. At the end of this period he returned to Indiana. In his school he was a very diligent student, and these habits of study continued his life long. He made up for early deficiencies in opportunity by careful study, making himself to be indeed a self-educated man.

December 9, 1855, he was married to Miss Sarah E. House. Of twelve children, eight are now living, left with their mother to lament their loss.

Brother Meredith was converted while he was in Iowa, and there united with the Methodist Episcopal Church. After his marriage, he was licensed to exhort in 1857, and in 1858 was licensed to preach. In 1860, he was admitted on trial in the Indiana Conference, and in due time he was ordained Deacon by Bishop Ames, and Elder by Bishop Simpson. His appointments in the Indiana Conference were, Waverly Circuit, Lancaster, Bowling Green, Patoka, Owensville, Newburgh, Boonesville.

From Boonesville he was transferred to the North Indiana Conference, in the spring of 1871. His appointments among us were: Columbia City, Ligonier, LaGrange, Greenfield, Ossian, Roanoke, Presiding Elder of the Fort Wayne District and New Castle. At the close of his first year at New Castle, failing health obliged him to take a supernumerary relation, which was soon after changed to superannuated, making him twenty-five years of effective service, the early portion of which was on a very large and laborious circuit.

Since Brother Meredith's superannuation, he has been engaged in various enterprises; a portion of the time in the Bethel work. He has never been rugged since a severe sickness in the summer of his second year on the Fort Wayne District. A decline set in which slowly, but surely, continued its ravages. His last illness began in August, 1890. He was, however, confined to his bed but one week. During all his sickness he was hopeful and courageous, expecting and desiring to recover, and anxious to do more for the Master. He expressed himself that he did not believe his life work was finished, that there was so much yet to be accomplished. He declared that his desire to study and preach the gospel was never stronger than then. Even a few minutes before his departure he expressed a hope that he would soon be better. And so indeed he was, but in a grander way than he had anticipated, for Sunday, March 23, 1891, Palm Sunday, just as the church bells were ringing for evening service, he quietly and unexpectedly passed away, appearing to be conscious and to recognize those about his bed. He departed so gently that his companion could not tell when he ceased to breathe, and was not certain of it until she had spoken to him three times without answer and had shaken his shoulder. Then was it manifest that this good man had joined the triumphal procession, and was waving the palm of victory as he entered with the Redeemer into the new Jerusalem.

Thus he finished his labors, aged 58 years, 5 months, 11 days. On Tuesday, the 24th, his Presiding Elder, the Rev. Dr. Stabler, held his funeral services at his late residence, assisted by his Pastor, the Rev. A. S. Wooten, and several other members of this Conference. His remains were interred at New Castle.

Brother Meredith's long and useful service in this Conference has caused him to be well known to us all. In his family he was ever loving and indulgent; to his companion he was a true husband, her constant stay; as a citizen, he was a man of firm convictions, standing up for the right without consideration of the consequences. He was a genial companion, cheerful, a fluent conversationalist, a true and sympathizing friend. During a long and confidential acquaintance the writer never heard an unpleasant or unworthy word from his lips, nor saw in him uncharitable thoughts. His character and reputation were always above reproach, and such as becomes a faithful minister of the Lord Jesus Christ.

He was a faithful pastor, found in the family circles of his people, by the bedside of the sick and comforting the dying. As a Presiding Elder, he watched diligently for the best interests of all, and hence he was honored and loved. He was as diligent in his study as in any other portion of his work. His sermons were thought out and elaborated with great care, and frequently written, though seldom read. He gained a deserved reputation for eloquence, and his discourses commanded universal respect. His reasoning was cogent, and he delighted in the sturdy themes that demanded strong mental power. His aspirations were as lofty as his spirit was gentle. He bore trials with great patience. He was a hearty Methodist.

During his last week his wife remarked to him she feared to leave him lest she might find him dead when she returned to the room. He answered "Mother, if you come into the room and find I have passed away in your absence from my side, just remember I am in heaven." He often said that no man could afford to sin. While it was a great trial to him to cease from active work, he bore superannuation with resignation, and looked forward with hope to the day when he should enter upon the activities of the nobler life.

Let us lay the palm upon his grave while he wears the crown.

MRS. SARAH COOPER.

Sarah Chilcoat was born January 10, 1829, of religious parentage. Early in life, under the influence of the Christian example of her mother, and the pious training of her father, who was a class-leader, she experienced conversion and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, of which she remained an active and faithful member until her death.

September, 10, 1878, she was united in marriage to Rev. Isaac Cooper, an honored member of our Conference. During the several years of her residence in Goshen, in which she was identified with the First Church, she "grappled to her with hooks of steel" a large circle of friends, to whose love and admiration her sterling qualities of character strongly commended her. Though deprived of the privilege of sharing in the toils and triumphs of the itinerancy by the continued frail health of her companion, she never lost her interest in, and regard for, the work and welfare of the active ministry. No pastor who met her, failed to recognize in her a sympathizing friend, and cordial helper in every line of church activity to which she was called. A patient sufferer for several weeks before her death, her superior courage and submission were potent inspirations to those who visited her sick-room. Her friends found themselves strengthened in faith and hope by conversation with her as she waited hard by the gates of glory, prayerfully expectant of an abundant entrance. For her, "to live was Christ, and to die was gain." April 17, 1890, she fell asleep, her husband and daughter by her side, comforted in the knowledge that she was conscious of the blessed truth that

> "Jesus can make a dying bed > Feel soft as downy pillows are."

The funeral which was attended by a large number of her friends and former fellow-laborers in the vineyard of the Master, took place April 30, from the Fifth Avenue Methodist Episcopal Church, in Goshen. Her pastor, Rev. C. C. Albertson, officiated, assisted by Rev. F. D. Newhouse and others. No better, truer, epitaph can be written of her than this: "In her life she illustrated the beauty, and in her death, exemplified the excellence of Christianity."

Also Bronchitis, Catarrh, Hay Fever, Hemorrhage of the Lungs, Pneumonia, General Debility, &c. A remarkable cure, "May 28th, 1889, over two years ago, I had a violent attack of hemorrhage. My physician thought it came from my right lung; but I believed it came from my bronchial tubes. I tried one package of Rev. Wm. Harrison's Remedy and was greatly helped, and took it quite largely during the year. After a little I resumed my pastoral work, and to-day speak and sing as easy for myself as ever. W. F. BROWN." Price $2.50 per package. Send for circulars. THE HARRISON REMEDY CO., ROME, N. Y.
